

2017 Architecture Showcase Submission Form

Every year, American Libraries features the Library Design Showcase, which spotlights new, expanded, and renovated library buildings. A showcase of exteriors and interiors of all kinds, this special issue features some of the best in new library design, as well as accounts of successfully completed renovations. The editors invite librarians, architects, and interior designers to share their treasures with AL's readers. For consideration, return this completed form with high-resolution digital images by May 31, 2017. Digital images should be JPEGs a resolution of 300 dpi.
