

SUBMISSION FORM

2026 Library Design Showcase

Every year, American Libraries' Library Design Showcase spotlights new, expanded, and renovated library buildings. A showcase of exteriors and interiors of all kinds, this issue features some of the best in new library design, as well as accounts of successfully completed renovations. The editors invite librarians, architects, and interior designers to share their treasures with AL's readers. For consideration, return this completed form with at least five high-resolution digital images by May 1, 2026.
